Mr. and Mrs. Preston Gibson, of Chicago, who have been the guests for some and in her Washington home, have given any their Chicago home and stored their household goods. They will spend the summer in the Page summer home at best man for Mr. Fleming. York Harbor, and their plans for next season have not been arranged.

Society will turn out practically en masse this afternoon and tonight to witness the performance of "Herr Lohengrin," by the Mask and Wig Club, of the University of Pennsylvania. The house for the night performance was sold out a week ago. The matinee is given this year for students of Wasnington schools, and a number of them have secured blocks of seats. The pupils of the National Park Seminary have taken a block of a hundred, the students of Fairmount Seminary took two boxes and several rows of the orchestra, and the Florence School, Gunston Institute, and Washington College will be well represented in the orchestra chairs.

Mrs. William F. Tucker, wife of MaJor Tucker, and aughter of Mrs. John A. Logan, will have charge of the candy booth at the mammoth fete to be given in the grounds of John R. McLean's country place, "Friendsnip," on May 10 and 11. This booth will be for the benefit of the Garfield Memorial Hospital, of which Mrs. Legan has always been the president of the board of lady managers. Mrs. Tucker will have a number of assistants among the matrons and belles in society, and they will have in addition to candy, peanuts and popcorn. Assisting Mrs. Tucker will be Mrs.
Chamberlir, Mrs. George B. Welch, Mrs.
James F. Mitchell, Mrs. Swaveley, Miss Tunbull, and a party of young girls from several seminaries.
